Sarah McConaughey

Sarah McConaughey is a professional and friendly Podiatrist with over 16 years of experience. She is a registered member of the Health Professions Council and The Society of Chiropodists and Podiatrists.

Sarah studied at the School of Podiatry in Northampton qualifying in 1998 with a degree in Podiatric medicine. This qualification allows Sarah, among other treatments, to do injection therapy, perform partial or toe nail resection and remove tissue with chemical destruction.

Her post graduate training at Warwick University has included several master modules in diabetic medicine. This has lead to her gaining her MChS, Post Graduate Award in diabetes.
